"Faithful to All His Promises"
"Promises to Believers"

Question:

Does God care more about His own children? Are there promises that are only for certain people?

Answer:

As you learned last week, God is good to all. However, just as a mom cares more about her own children than for others, God also cares more for his own children. He has made some promises that are especially for His own children and not for all people.

Question:

What does it mean to be an "heir according to the promise" or to have "the right to become children of

Answer:

Some promises are only for Believers— those who have trusted Jesus and prayed to ask Jesus to be their Lord and Savior. Once you have accepted Jesus as your Lord and Savior, you are a child of God! You then can receive the promises that God made just for Believers!
