Question:

Does God always defend us? Explain.

Answer:

God will always defend us. Sometimes He does not come to our defense immediately. Sometimes He proves over time that what we did, how we acted, or they way we were right.

Question:

Is it wrong to take up for yourself and explain and defend yourself when someone is attacking you or speaking against you?

Answer:

It is not wrong to defend yourself, but we should not trust in our own ability to defend ourselves. We need to just simply state the facts and trust in God's promise to defend us.

Question:

Who is the greatest accuser?

Answer:

Satan. Satan tells us lies like "You are no good", "God will not forgive you", "You can't do that", etc.

MEMORIZE ME!

All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel" which means, God with us. Matthew 1:22-23

Pray the Name: Father we praise your holy Name because you are Jehovah Maginnenu. You are our defense in times of trouble. Thank you for always coming to our defense. Help us not to argue with others in trying to prove ourselves right but instead help us to lean on and trust in Your promises to defend us. We ask that you keep us from believing Satan's lies. Thank you for allowing us to come to you with all of our hurts and feelings knowing that with you on our side others can do nothing to us. Thank you for providing your Son, Jesus, who paid the payment for our sin and who will stand to defend us on the day of Judgment. Amen
