

Bricks and mortar

3rd, 4th, and 5th Grade
"How Majestic is His Name"
Other Names of God

Turn over on
Side 2 for more
Questions, Answers and
Memory Verse!!

Why do you think God is called a fortress and a refuge?

Question:

Question:
Why is God called a "Hiding Place"?

Question:
Why is God called our "Rock"?

Answer:
It refers to His strength and protection. In the midst of trouble, God stands firm. When we encounter difficulties and troubles we will stand firm.

Answer:
Not only will God protect us, but He will also give us a song of praise to sing in the midst of trouble.

Answer:
Because He is stable, strong and firm.

Question:
Why is God called "Lion of the Tribe of Judah"?

Answer:
Lions are the king of the beasts. God is the supreme ruler of the universe. Lions are strong, God is all powerful. Lions are proud and majestic. God is glorious and majestic. There is no animal which can win in a fight against a lion. God is all victorious—there is no one or nothing stronger than Him.

01/29/12

© K. Bankston

Bricks and mortar

3rd, 4th, and 5th Grade
"How Majestic is His Name"
Other Names of God

Turn over on
Side 2 for more
Questions, Answers and
Memory Verse!!

Why do you think God is called a fortress and a refuge?

Question:

Question:
Why is God called a "Hiding Place"?

Question:
Why is God called our "Rock"?

Answer:
It refers to His strength and protection. In the midst of trouble, God stands firm. When we encounter difficulties and troubles we will stand firm.

Answer:
Not only will God protect us, but He will also give us a song of praise to sing in the midst of trouble.

Answer:
Because He is stable, strong and firm.

Question:
Why is God called "Lion of the Tribe of Judah"?

Answer:
Lions are the king of the beasts. God is the supreme ruler of the universe. Lions are strong, God is all powerful. Lions are proud and majestic. God is glorious and majestic. There is no animal which can win in a fight against a lion. God is all victorious—there is no one or nothing stronger than Him.

01/29/12

© K. Bankston

