
December 20, 2009 • Dr. Bart Box

HE CAME TO BRING US LIFE
John 10:7-10

Two Designs upon Our Lives…

- The Design of _____ …
  - The design of the thief is _____.
    - The immediate _____ are highlighted.
    - The inevitable _____ is hidden.
  - The design of the thief is _____.
    - The thief is _____ to total devastation.
    - The thief is _____ about total devastation.

- The Design of _____ …
  - The design of Jesus is_____— eternal life.
  - The design of Jesus is_____— knowledge of God.

Two Responses with Our Lives…

- _____ by the Door.
  - The door is _____.
  - The door is _____.

- _____ Christ's Provision.
  - Enjoyment of Christ's provision demands _____ hearts.
  - Enjoyment of Christ's provision demands _____ desires.

A Final Plea…

Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!

December 20, 2009 • Dr. Bart Box

HE CAME TO BRING US LIFE
John 10:7-10

Two Designs upon Our Lives…

- The Design of Devastation…
  - The design of the thief is concealed.
    - The immediate pleasures are highlighted.
    - The inevitable wreckage is hidden.
  - The design of the thief is comprehensive.
    - The thief is devoted to total devastation.
    - The thief is intentional about total devastation.

- The Design of Delight…
  - The design of Jesus is abundance—eternal life.
  - The design of Jesus is simple—knowledge of God.

Two Responses with Our Lives…

- Enter by the Door.
  - The door is personal.
  - The door is singular.

- Enjoy Christ's Provision.
  - Enjoyment of Christ's provision demands repentant hearts.
  - Enjoyment of Christ's provision demands renewed desires.

A Final Plea…

Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!
(Psalm 34:8)