

PART I

Redemption Promised to a Covenant People

- Dr. David Platt

Chapter 4 : YAHWEH Exodus 3

His Revelation...

- I am holy.
 - He is perfectly unique.
 - He is completely separate.
 - He is absolutely pure.
- I am merciful.
 - He sees our affliction.
 - He hears our cries.
 - He knows our sufferings.
 - He remembers His covenant.
- I am ever-present.
- I am all-powerful.
- I am self-existent.
 - He has no origin.
- I am self-sufficient.
 - He has no needs.
- I am eternal.
 - His glory never dims.
 - His beauty never fades.
- I am immutable.
 - His perfections never change.
- I am faithful.
 - He promises liberation.
 - He promises redemption.
 - He promises adoption.
 - He promises possession.
- I am sovereign.
- I am just.
- I am God.

Our Response...

- Put your faith and hope in Him.
 - The steadfast confession of the Old Testament: God is the Lord.
 - The stunning realization of the New Testament: Christ is the Lord!
- Find your rest and refuge in Him.
 - Do not focus on the circumstances that are difficult around you.
 - Put your focus on the character of the One who called you.
- Give your adoration and affection to Him.
 - Routine religion is no longer tolerable.
 - Casual worship is no longer possible.
 - Total surrender is no longer optional.
 - Global mission is no longer negotiable.
