 - He was submissive to the Father.
 - His incarnate positions as the Son of Man makes possible our eternal privilege as sons of God.

- ▶ From life to death so that we might live.
 - The reality: He was born to die.
 - A shameful death.
 - A painful death.
 - A cursed death.
 - The result: We are born again to live.
 - His shame becomes our honor.
 - His pain becomes our joy.
 - His curse becomes our blessing.

- ▶ From rich to poor so that we might become rich.
 - See His poverty in the world...
 - He gives up his rights.
 - He gives us his resources.
 - Be His people in the world...
 - We give up our rights.
 - We give others our resources.

The Bottom Line...

God has amazed us with His grace through the humility, sacrifice, and liberality of His Son.

God desires to amaze the nations with His grace through the humility, sacrifice, and liberality of His people.
